

NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER

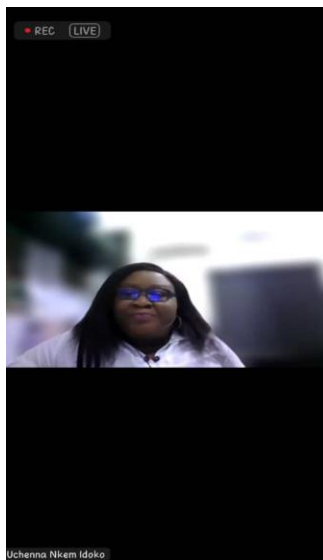

Launching our GRB4GBV Project in Calabar

On the 21st of November, we carried out our inception project in Calabar, for the start of our new project “Gender Responsive Budgeting for Gender Base Violence Prevention and Mitigation (GRB4GBV)” which is funded by The African Women Development Fund. This event convened diverse group of Civil Society Organizations who are also committed to addressing the GBV pandemic.

The 88th edition of The Nextier Group's monthly Power Dialogue

Our Executive Director virtually joined other experts in the energy sector for the 88th edition of The Nextier Group's monthly Power Dialogue, on the 23rd of November. The session analyzed the viability of electric and natural gas-powered vehicles and also examined mechanisms to enhance e-mobility in Nigeria. She majorly spoke about gender mainstreaming in e- mobility and called for an inclusive EV adoption in Nigeria.

The Future of
E- Mobility in Nigeria

Thur. 23rd Nov. 2023
@5:30pm

Thought Pyramid Art
Centre, 18 Libreville
Crescent, Wuse 2, Abuja

16 Days of Activism Against Older Women's Abuse Campaign

Starting from November 25th, we actively participated in the global 16 Days of Activism campaign, centering our efforts around the theme "16 Days of Activism Against Older Women's Abuse". Leveraging visuals captured during our October awareness campaign funded by Global Affairs Canada through ActionAid Nigeria, on caregiving for older women, we've been engaging in an e-campaign on our social media platforms, raising awareness about the prevalence of abuse against older women and educating the audience on the importance of caregiving for this demography.

Launched a Project that advocates for Gender Responsive Budgeting for Custodial Centers

On November 29th, CGE Africa and the Prisoners' Rehabilitation and Welfare Action (PRAWA), launched a project, focusing on assessing rehabilitation programs and government budgets for female inmates and their children in Nigerian correctional centers, funded by the MacArthur Foundation. The workshop, attended by representatives from Civil Society Organizations and Government Agencies, fostered diverse perspectives and recommendations, laying the groundwork for a comprehensive and inclusive approach to meet the needs of female inmates and their children.

Courtesy Visit by the Gender and Blue Economy Working Group (GBEE-WOG)

On November 29, 2023, the National Working Group on Gender and Blue Economy, headed by Funmilayo Arowoogun, extended a courtesy visit to the Lagos State Ministry of Agriculture. The focus of this visit was to initiate discussions and explore potential collaborations aimed at enhancing inclusivity within Lagos State's blue economy sector in 2024. GBEE-WOG is hosted and coordinated by CGE Africa.

